

SCHOOL PROJECT

To make life easier for you, use the spark merged dataset to specifically select a subset of this dataset with minimal complexity in terms of latex string length and size of images.

More complicated images might be harder to work with. The more success you get from your model and the better it gets, the more you can incorporate more complex images.